Cable Release Kit

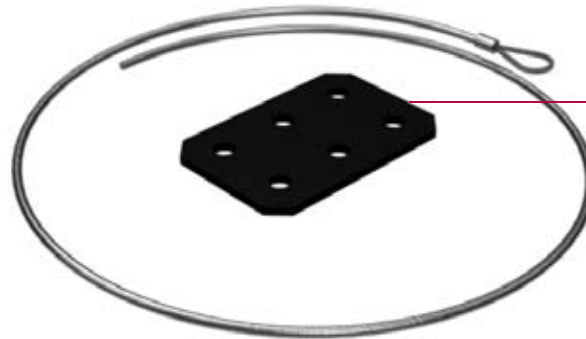

For Peerless' Full Service Video Wall Mount (DS-VW760)

Quickly handle maintenance and repair service in a video wall with this Cable Release Kit for Peerless' Full Service Video Wall Mount (DS-VW760). This simple cable release replaces the original mount release mechanism and provides quick access to once hard-to-reach locations. Use it for the center screens in a video wall, recessed video walls or any other location where quick and easy maintenance is a plus.

FEATURES

- Makes maintenance quick and easy
- Thin and durable cable
- Tough, long-lasting fastener for secure attachment
- Provides access to recessed wall areas
- Enables screen to stay positioned in video wall matrix during maintenance

EASY OPERATION

Quickly release screens from the wall without removing them from the video wall matrix

Cable and fastener attached to mount release mechanism
